

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 20, 2010

Robin Sharma Earns Prestigious Top 5 Speaker Designation in Leadership

Toronto, Canada: Robin Sharma has been awarded the prestigious “Top 5 Speaker” designation in 2010 by Speakers Platform, one of the United States’ most prominent speakers bureaus. Out of hundreds of nominees, Robin Sharma has risen to become one of the world’s most respected and compelling speakers in Leadership.

Each year, Speakers Platform recognizes five speakers, within fifteen popular topic areas, based on: expertise, professionalism, innovation within the topic area, client testimonials and references, presentation skills, original contribution to the field and public votes cast at the Speaking.com website. Over 13,000 votes were cast from business leaders, educators, association members and others from around the world for the 2010 nominees.

Michael Frick, President of Speakers Platform commented; “During the economic downturn and corresponding downsizing; it’s more important than ever for companies to remain competitive in the global economy by giving their employees the tools to succeed. Speakers such as Robin Sharma help boost employee morale and improve their audiences’ personal and professional lives.”

Robin Sharma is the globally celebrated author of 10 bestselling books on leadership and personal development. His work has been published in over 60 countries and nearly 70 languages. Titles include The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari and The Greatness Guide series, which have topped international bestseller lists and sold millions of copies. Robin is the founder of Sharma Leadership International Inc., a global training firm that helps people in organizations Lead Without a Title. Clients include many of the Fortune 500 including Microsoft, BP, GE and IBM. As well as organizations such as, NASA and Yale University. Sharma was voted as the #2 leadership guru in the world in a survey of over 22,000 people (source: leadershipgurus.net).

Robin Sharma’s next book release is called the THE LEADER WHO HAD NO TITLE: A Modern Fable on Real Success in Business and in Life. Robin Sharma offers a parable designed to help people from all walks of life – and the organizations they are involved in – create extraordinary success. From the janitor to the CEO, the student to the taxi driver, this tale can benefit everyone. Available April 6, 2010 online at www.amazon.com, www.barnesandnoble.com and other leading book retailers.

For information on Robin Sharma, contact: Media Relations media@robinsharma.com or go to www.robinsharma.com

