

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 30, 2006

Top Canadian Leadership Guru Invited to Tour India with Bono and Bill Clinton

Toronto: Robin Sharma, bestselling author of the runaway bestseller “The Greatness Guide” and one of the world's top leadership experts and success coaches has been invited to share the stage with Bono and Bill Clinton on an upcoming tour of India. The tour will be targeted at business executives within the nation that many pundits are calling the world's next economic superpower.

“I am honored by the invitation,” says Sharma, the 42 year old consultant and former litigation lawyer who skyrocketed to international fame with his bestseller “The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari”. Sharma has previously shared the stage with thought leaders such as Jack Welch, Christopher Reeve, Deepak Chopra and Dr. Phil. His unique brand of advice has helped millions of people lead better lives and companies like FedEx, Microsoft, Nike and Panasonic boost productivity, employee engagement and grow leaders throughout the organization.

For further info contact:
Media Relations
media@robinsharma.com or (905) 889 7900

About Robin Sharma

Robin Sharma, LL.B, LL.M., is one of the world's top experts on personal development and leadership, having helped millions of people live greater lives. He is the author of 8 major international bestsellers, including The Greatness Guide and The Monk Who Sold His Ferrari. Robin Sharma is the CEO of Sharma Leadership International Inc., a success coaching and training firm with clients such as BP, RIM, FedEx, IBM, Microsoft, GM, Nike and Panasonic. His website robinsharma.com is one of the most popular personal success destinations on the Internet. He lives in Toronto.